YEAR IN REVIEW

We are proud to serve our community of readers.

CCPL is one of the busiest library systems in Maryland, based on circulation, visits, program attendance and Internet use per capita. We are thankful for the funding we receive from Carroll County Government and the State of Maryland, and our community and customers for their support.

In the past year, we:

- Introduced Carroll County to our humanoid programming robot, Pepper. Funded by a Library Services & Technology Act Grant from the Maryland State Library and Institute of Museum and Library Services.
- Held 9 Battle of the Books competitions with 1,567 students and 208 teams participating. Held two kickoff events with Battle of the Books authors Natalie Dias Lorenzi, Cammie McGovern, Hena Khan, and Ru Xu.
- Placed #1 in Maryland for circulation per capita and expanded our digital collections.
- Continued planning Exploration Commons at 50 East, the 14,000 sf hi-tech maker-space, professional teaching kitchen, and meeting spaces coming to the lower level of the Westminster Branch in the next year.
- Hosted bestselling authors Chris Bohjalian, Jamie Ford, Lisa Scottoline, Harlan Coben, Dave Barry, Judith Viorst, Jennifer McManus, Jane Green, Dorothea Benton Frank, Elin Hilderbrand, Laura Lippman, Sandra Brown, CJ Box, Karen Abbott, Lisa Kleypas, Sarah MacLean, Eloisa James, Tracy Chevalier, Angie Kim, Max Brallier, W. Bruce Cameron, Lisa Jewell, Susannah Cahalan and Michael Connelly.
- Increased participation in the Summer Reading program to a five-year high of 9,982.
- Developed a first of its kind partnership as a NASA outpost.

MISSION AND CORE PURPOSE
We connect our community with welcoming spaces, innovative resources and services, and educational experiences for lifetime enrichment.

OVERHEARD
Here’s what our customers are saying.

“Just a terrific group of professionals who give excellent service. Did a passport application without any wait of drama; much appreciated. Plus, I love being able to just come in and pick up my held books; it’s like having my own “personal shopper” for the books I want to read and listen to.”

-Alissa

“The children’s programming is fantastic, and my kids dearly love the librarians here. Actually, I’ll go ahead and admit, I really enjoy storytime, too!”

-Ashley

“Fantastic library I have been going here since I was a teenager and now I bring my kids and they always have such an amazing time. The staff is so helpful and kind. So many events for kids and adults, as well. We always have crazy fun every event we attend.”

-Jess
