Public Use of Meeting Rooms

Uses

The library welcomes the use of its meeting rooms by community groups in Carroll County for civic, educational, and cultural activities and discussion of current events. The rooms are not available for purposes where, in the judgment of the Executive Director, disorder and substantial disruption of the functioning of the library are likely to occur. The rooms may not be used for private birthday parties, baby showers, weddings or personal social events. Library programs, including programs through partnerships such as the Learning Advantage Partnership, will have first priority for use of the rooms.

The Library, its Board of Trustees and staff do not endorse the actions, opinions, or expressed points of view of the organizations that sponsor or host meetings or the individuals who attend meetings and events on library premises. All meeting room activity is subject to behavior policy guidelines https://library.carr.org/about/docs/behavior.pdf

Reservations

The application for use of a meeting room is available on the library's website, library.carr.org, or by calling or visiting one of our branches and asking a librarian for assistance. Reservations will not be accepted for dates more than two months in advance. Reserving a library meeting room constitutes acceptance of the library's meeting room regulations, which are posted on the website and must be acknowledged before a reservation can be finalized. Requestors can download the regulations for future reference, or library staff may assist them in obtaining copies.

Cancellations can be made via the link in your confirmation email or by calling your local branch. Cancellations should be made as early as possible and at least 24 hours in advance. Cancellations prevent the use of a meeting room by other groups; therefore the library reserves the right to charge a $10 fee for cancellations within five days of the event. Failure to notify the library of a cancellation may jeopardize future bookings. Reservations are forfeited if a requestor does not arrive within 30 minutes after the start of the reserved time. Also, a $10 fee will be charged. Repeated failure to comply will result in loss of privileges.

Hours of Service and Fees

Meeting rooms are available for use during regular library hours.

The library reserves the right to make fee determinations. No meeting room fee will be charged for the use of the meeting rooms by the following groups: 1) library-sponsored and co-sponsored programs; 2) government-related meetings, including Carroll County Government, Carroll County municipalities, the State of Maryland, and the federal government, as well as elected officials at any of these levels of government; 3) nonprofit groups; 4) tutors offering one-on-one or family sessions.

For-profit groups will be charged as follows:

- Large meeting room - $50 per 2-hour block, not to exceed $150 for each use
- Small meeting room - $25 per 2-hour block, not to exceed $75 for each use.

Fees are due the day of the reservation. Payment may be made by cash, credit card, or check made payable to Carroll County Public Library.
