

Tickets on Sale Now for James McBride Author Event

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

January 28, 2020

Carroll County Public Library
1100 Green Valley Road
New Windsor, MD 21776

Contact: Lisa Picker
443.293.3196
lpicker@carr.org

Penguin Random House Book Fair Kickoff to Feature James McBride

Westminster, MD – Carroll County Public Library (CCPL) invites you to kick off the 2020 Penguin Random House Book Fair on Friday, March 6 at 7:00 pm, by attending an evening with author James McBride. The event will be held at Carroll Community College, Bollinger Conference Center, room K100.

James McBride is an accomplished musician and the author of the National Book Award-winning novel The Good Lord Bird, the bestselling American classic The Color of Water, the novels Song Yet Sung and Miracle at St. Anna, the story collection Five-Carat Soul, and Kill 'Em and Leave, a biography of James Brown. The recipient of a National Humanities Medal, McBride is also a Distinguished Writer-in-Residence at New York University.

Tickets are $25 and include a copy of the newly released Deacon King Kong. A book signing will follow the author talk. Additional titles will be available for purchase, and sales will benefit Carroll Community College Foundation. Purchase tickets at any CCPL branch or online at library.carr.org/bookfair.

This event is a partnership between Penguin Random House, Carroll Community College, A Likely Story Bookstore, and Carroll County Public Library. For full details about the book fair, visit <https://www.carrollcc.edu/bookfair/>.

#