History Brought to Life in the Unforgettable Tale of Six Women During the French Revolution

Mount Airy, MD – Carroll County Public Library (CCPL) and A Likely Story Bookstore, will host a panel of three of the authors of Ribbons of Scarlet: Laura Kamoie, Stephanie Dray, and E. Knight on Monday, October 28, 6:30pm, at the Mount Airy Branch. The author event is free, but registration is required. Register online at ccpl.librarymarket.com/events/scarlet or at any CCPL Branch.

Multiple bestselling and award-winning authors bring to life a breathtaking epic novel in Ribbons of Scarlet, illuminating the hopes, desires, and destinies of princesses and peasants, harlots and wives, fanatics and philosophers—six unforgettable women whose paths cross during one of the most tumultuous and transformative events in history: the French Revolution. Other popular historical fiction by these authors include: My Dear Hamilton, America's First Daughter, A Year of Ravens, and A Day of Fire.

For adults. Books will be available for purchase from A Likely Story Bookstore. Please, no outside books in signing line.
