CCPL, A Likely Story Bookstore, and Carroll Lutheran Village to Host Bestselling Author Judith Viorst

Westminster, MD – Carroll County Public Library (CCPL), A Likely Story Bookstore, and Carroll Lutheran Village will host an evening with Judith Viorst on Wednesday, May 1, 7:00pm, at the Carroll Community College's Scott Center Theater. Tickets are $18 and include a copy of Nearing Ninety. Tickets may be purchased at library.carr.org/author.

Judith Viorst writes in many different areas, including children's chapter and picture books. Her beloved children's book, Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day, has sold some 4 million copies. She also writes adult fiction and nonfiction including the New York Times bestseller, Necessary Losses; poetry for children and adults; and four musicals. Her most recent books of poetry include What Are You Glad About? What Are You Mad About? and Nearing Ninety.

In Nearing Ninety, bestselling author Judith Viorst candidly shares the complicated joys and everyday tribulations that await us at the age of ninety, all with a large dose of humor and an understanding that nothing—well, almost nothing—in life should be taken too seriously.

A book signing will follow the author talk and books will be available for purchase from A Likely Story Bookstore. No outside books permitted at book signing.
