PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release
January 5, 2023

Ernest Thompson, Author of On Golden Pond, Returns to Westminster

Westminster, MD – Ernest Thompson will appear for an author talk and book signing for his latest work, The Book of Maps, on Saturday, January 21, 2 p.m. at Carroll Lutheran Village Chapel. The program is presented by A Likely Story Bookstore, Carroll Lutheran Village, and Carroll County Public Library. Books will be available for purchase and signing. In compliance with venue guidelines, masks will be required at this program. This is a free program, but attendees should register in advance at https://ccpl.librarymarket.com/event/be-read-ernest-thompson.

On the upcoming visit, Ernest Thompson said, “It’ll be good to be back in Westminster and prove Thomas Wolfe wrong; you really can go home again. I’m looking forward to revisiting my old haunts and reconnecting with long lost friends and hearing their stories and sharing my newest one, The Book of Maps.”

About Ernest Thompson
Ernest Thompson’s work has won an Academy Award, two Golden Globes, Writers Guild and Broadway Drama Guild Awards and been nominated for a Tony, an Emmy and a British Academy Award. His plays have been seen in theatres around the world, his most enduring, On Golden Pond, translated into 30 languages and presented in more than 40 countries. Current projects include the film sequel to On Golden Pond, the plays Some Parts Missing and Ask/Answer, and the novel Out Clause coming in 2023. With his writer wife Kerrin Thompson, he established Rescind Recidivism, a prison writing program giving inmates a chance to feel creative as well as human, capable and worthy.

Ernest lived in Westminster in the ’60s, moving from New Hampshire when his father was hired by Western Maryland College. Known then by his first name Richard or, as it says on his Varsity Letter jacket, Dick, Thompson was active in Westminster High School sports, graduating in 1967. But he’s never forgotten his Westminster roots. In the name of his father, Theron Barker Thompson, he started a scholarship available to Carroll County students interested in pursuing their own studies in the arts. Forty years ago, Thompson was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Letters by Western Maryland College, with a second certificate commemorating the recognition when the school was renamed McDaniel.

About The Book of Maps
In the summer of 2002, Brendan Tibbet, a filmmaker whose luck has run low, takes his ten-year-old son Brenlyn on a raucous road trip across America. Following a 1930s travel guide Brendan purchased at a yard sale, the two-week trek from LA to New Hampshire covers 16 states, hitting the iconic stops along the way, Yosemite, the Great Salt Lake, Yellowstone, Mt. Rushmore, and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, replete with wild exploits both hilarious and perilous, but it’s the interior journey that is enlightening, deeply poignant and life-changing.

#  #

Media Contact: Lisa Picker, Director of Communications, at 443-293-3196 or lpicker@carr.org