The Honorable Frederick Douglass Living History Performance

Westminster and Eldersburg, MD – This year, we are proud to celebrate the bicentennial birthday of one of America’s great leaders, Frederick Douglass, with a Living History Performance by storyteller Bill Grimmette. Telling masterful stories in the character of Douglass, with an occasional excerpt from his many letters, speeches, and writings, Grimmette intends to transport us back in time to let us see and hear what audiences around the world saw and heard that shaped our exceptional nation.

There will be a performance at the Westminster Branch on Saturday, June 23 at 11am. Grimmette will perform a second time at the Eldersburg Branch on Saturday, June 23 at 2pm. All attendees need to register for the Eldersburg performance on our website at library.carr.org. This is a Choose Civility and Celebrating America program.
