

ANNUAL REPORT 2025

“ The library has always been a place of joy for me. —Angie, Finksburg **”

PUBLIC LIBRARY

“ Telling Our Story

This past year, we embarked upon a campaign to gather stories. While the library is filled with stories, we were missing some very important ones—yours. Many individuals and families took the opportunity to let us know how they use the library and what impact library services have had upon their lives. What we got back were moving accounts of connection, support, and opportunity. You'll see quotes from this collection throughout this report and in other library media.

The next chapter of library service will be rolled out in the coming year with the start of our new strategic plan. The focus of our work will be to:

1. Cultivate Community Character & Belonging
2. Work Together for the Greater Good
3. Ensure Access to Opportunity
4. Champion Literacy and Learning

Finally, we thank our amazing CCPL staff for their hardwork and dedication! We are grateful for the opportunity to serve our community and encourage you to continue to let us know how we can help you discover infinite possibilities.

When I was a young mom with a toddler, we moved to Maryland for my husband's job. We lived close to the library and I found myself taking my daughter to the library 2-3 times a week to attend programs, play in the kids section, and bring home a big stack of books to read together. It became my safe haven in a really lonely time in my life.

—Mallory, Eldersburg

“ As a homeschooling family, we rely heavily on our community for social and educational opportunities. The Mount Airy Branch of the CCPL consistently offers a wide variety of free, engaging, unique programming that my kids are excited to attend.

“ My husband and I have taken a couple of classes for the laser cutter and the 3D-printer. Both were well done and provided us with the information we needed. The instructors were great! We are now planning a few projects to use the equipment.
